FOCUS ON TODAY'S THEME:

Chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, we are to testify to his glory in words and actions.

Jesus sent the Apostles forth to proclaim the Good News. Each of us is called to testify to this love by proclaiming the Gospel with our words and in our deeds. Faith opens the door for God to work wonders in our lives.

TODAY'S LITURGY OF THE WORD:

In today's readings, Amos asserts that he is prophesying because the Lord called him to do so; therefore, he must continue his work. The Letter to the Ephesians states that through Jesus, we are adopted by God to be holy and without blemish before him. In the Gospel, Jesus gives the Twelve the authority over unclean spirits. He sends them out two-by-two. They preach repentance and perform many healings.
